Safeguarding policy

Introduction

We acknowledge the duty of care to safeguard and promote the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk and is committed to ensuring safeguarding practice reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice requirements.

Every child, young person or adult can be hurt, put at risk of harm or abused. The actions we must take to promote their welfare, and protect them from harm, are the responsibility of us all. Everyone who comes into contact with children or adults has a role to play.

The purpose of this policy is to set out the expectation placed on those working or volunteering at The House of Bread.

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of legislation, policy and guidance that seeks to protect children and vulnerable adults. It applies to us even though we do not, ourselves, provide activities for children, young people or vulnerable adults.

Statement of commitment

As part of our safeguarding policy we will:

- ensure appropriate action is taken in the event of incidents/concerns of abuse and support provided to the individual/s who raise or disclose the concern;

- ensure that confidential, detailed and accurate records of all safeguarding concerns are maintained and securely stored;
- ensure robust safeguarding arrangements and procedures are in operation;
- respond without delay to every allegation that a child or adult may have been harmed;
- value, listen to and respect all children, young people and adults at risk;

- carefully select all staff or volunteers;
- provide effective management for staff and volunteers.

The policy and procedures will be widely promoted and are mandatory for everyone involved. Failure to comply with the policy and procedures will be addressed without delay.

Monitoring

The policy will be reviewed annually:

- taking into account changes in legislation and/or government guidance;
- or as a result of any other significant change or event.

Responsibilities

We will appoint a Safeguarding Officer who will:

- take responsibility for working with the Site Managers and Board to ensure that good practices in child and young people safeguarding are monitored and developed;
- ensure that all safeguarding situations are reported.

Our expectation is that as part of fulfilling our director and trustee duties, we will take reasonable steps to protect people who come into contact with our charity from harm. This can be interpreted as us having a duty to check any group who regularly uses our premises have their own safeguarding checks in place. This does not include those who come occasionally.

We formally adopt this policy and keep a copy on file and easily available.

The Safeguarding Officer is not expected to be a safeguarding expert.

Our Safeguarding Officer is Ann Neale.

Any initial concern should be raised with the Safeguarding Officer who will assess the situation and, with the support of the Board of The House of Bread, will take further advice and/or notify the relevant authorities, social care or police.

There will be a written record of any incident completed as soon as possible after the notification of the incident. The responsibility of the volunteer or staff is not to investigate but to report.
